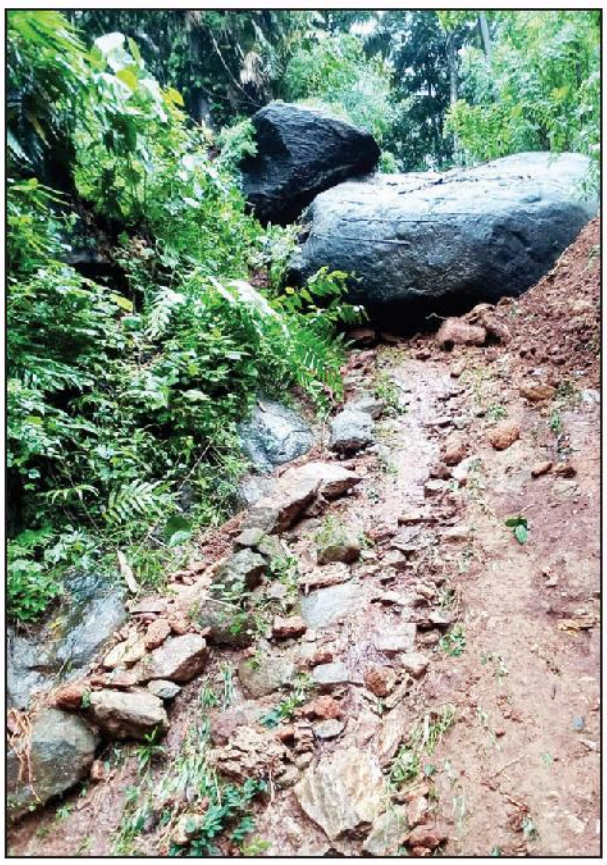
Rain intensifies in Kodagu

Several link roads under water; boulders block village walkways; Triveni Sangama at Bhagamandala submerged



Huge boulders have landed on the crude road used by the villagers at Karike-Kundathikana village, cutting off the connection last night.

Madikeri, July 3 (PS, Akshay & BCT)- Kodagu district has been experiencing incessant rains with occasional breaks for the last three to four days. Rivers are flowing in full spate and the Triveni Sangama at Bhagamandala has been submerged.

The India Meteorological Department (IMD), Bengaluru, has released a forecast till July 7 that has said that rains will lash Kodagu with medium and heavy intensity.

Officers and staff from the Public Works Department (PWD) are engaged in clearing roads that have been blocked by tree falls and landslips.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Maharashtra's nearly fortnight-long drama spread over four States saw Uddhav Thackeray resign as Chief Minister on Wednesday night and then had an unexpected climax on Thursday with the Shiv Sena's rebel leader Eknath Shinde being sworn-in as Chief Minister. Thackeray resigned claiming that he did not want to hang on to power, but it was clear that he did not have any other option before him, except to be voted out of office in the Assembly on Thursday. But it is difficult to see why Thackeray threw in the towel the previous day. A resignation after making a fighting speech in the Assembly might have sent out a stronger political message.

Even as Shinde has been sworn-in as Chief Minister, the BJP has emerged as the real victor in the drama, even at the cost of the ambition of its leader and former Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis, who is now to be Shinde's deputy. It was able to split the Shiv Sena, which has been its competitor in the Hindutva space for long. It has come back to power in Maharashtra, which is among the country's most important States. It is a tactical stroke on the BJP's part to offer the Chief Ministership to the rebel Sena leader. Even as it takes the No. 2 position, it will wield actual power in the Government. It is the BJP's 106 MLAs propping up a Chief Minister with 39 MLAs, and he will rule at its pleasure. The Shiv Sena is still the loser, with both the factions facing the challenge of proving themselves to be the real party. The Chief Ministership may help the rebel faction, but both the factions will have to fight it out on the ground. — In Deccan Herald

At 86, world's longest-serving flight attendant

Boston: A Boston woman who has been working for American Airlines for 65 years was named the world's longest-serving flight attendant by Guinness World Records.

Bette Nash, 86, started working as a flight attendant in 1957 and continues to this day without any lapse in employment.

Nash said she has spent most of her career working on New York-Boston-Washington shuttle because it allows her to return home at night to care for her son, who has disabilities. Guinness said Nash is also the oldest currently-serving flight attendant in the world.

In 2017, she celebrated her 60th anniversary with the company and said the job has changed considerably since early days. "You had to be a certain height, you had to be a certain weight. You put on a few pounds and you had to keep weighing yourself; then if you stayed that way, they would take you off the payroll."

Wins $250,000 lottery from dream numbers

Virginia: A Virginia man won a $250,000 prize after taxes using a set of lottery numbers that he said came to him in a dream. Alonzo Coleman of Henrico told Virginia Lottery officials he used numbers that came to him in a dream when he bought a ticket with four sets of numbers for the June 11 Bank a Million drawing.

Coleman split his $2 wager four ways, earning him a $250,000 prize when one of his sets matched the first six numbers drawn, 13-14-15-16-17-18. He missed only the Bonus Ball, 19. "It was hard to believe," he told Lottery officials. "It still hasn't hit me yet!" Coleman bought his ticket from the Glenside Corner Mart in Henrico.

REALLY...?

- Your mattress is considered old after around seven years, but according to the National Geographic, the oldest known "bed" in the world was discovered in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa, and dates back 77,000 years. Basically, it consisted of layers of plant material gathered into mats, which were periodically burned, perhaps to eliminate pests. The bed was around 12-inches thick and a whopping 22 square feet, providing plenty of room for the entire family. Leaves provided a cosy top sheet, and possibly also aided in keeping away bugs.

Home care and domestic help:
Police must sensitise employers

Sir,

All the available details about the recent kidnapping of a Mysuru boy for ransom incident are scary indeed. Seeking home care for the elderly has become essential for many families these days due to various compulsions.

Having domestic help has always been there fulfilling the needs of the employers and the employees as well. If crime creeps in these areas, it will be disastrous for all concerned.

While appreciating and congratulating Mysuru Police for their prompt response and safe results, I request our Police to initiate a proactive approach besides the usual reactive response. There can be a process and practice to register and update the details of all the personnel who work at homes in different capacities, with the Police. Employer families can be educated and sensitised to the need and the usefulness of such procedure. Police Stations can have a register or files with the biometric and identity details about all domestic service personnel. They also need to be convinced that such data can be for their safety as well.

We are fortunate to have many young, dynamic and enthusiastic Police personnel in Mysuru. They can initiate either to start afresh or actively implement if such a system already exists. The whole exercise should not be interpreted as infringement of privacy but essential as existent in any employment process.

Late M.D. Gogeri's family returns
Kannada Sahitya Academy Award

Bengaluru, July 3- Following High Court's (HC) direction to Kannada Sahitya Academy to review its decision of conferring 2013 Academy Award on litterateur M.D. Gogeri (now late), the family of the late litterateur has returned the Award yesterday.

It may be recalled that Gogeri was honoured with the Academy Award for his book 'Maha Maathe Mallakka' in the category of 'Lalitha Prabandha' for 2013, and it was announced in 2016.

However, Bharadwaja K. Anandatheertha, writer from Kanive village in Somwarpet taluk, Kodagu district, whose book 'Koutukavallada Kshanagalu' was also in the race, had approached the HC alleging lapses in the selection process.

The Court, in its order dated June 2, 2022, had instructed the Academy to form a Sub-Committee to review both books, which had scored equal marks, and to recommend for awarding book prize for the year 2013. Gogeri passed away in 2021.

Speaking to a section of the press, M.D. Gogeri's son R.M. Gogeri said that as requested by the Academy, they have couriered the citation and cheque for Rs. 5,000. "As the HC has directed the Academy to review the decision, we were asked to return it until they arrive at a decision. Our father was a citizen who abided by the law of the land and Courts. Following his principle, we returned it with respect."

> Upholding Kodagu writer Bharadwaja K. Anandatheertha's writ petition, the High Court had quashed Kannada Sahitya Academy Award-2013 and directed the Academy to reconstitute the Sub-Committee to review its decision

Stating that he and Gogeri did not know each other personally, Bharadwaja clarified: "My intention of approaching the Court was to streamline the lapses in the selection process, not to get an award for myself. My contention was that the Academy had not read our books while taking a decision after the three member jury gave its marks which incidentally was the same for both of us. When I sought information under the RTI Act, I got to know that the Sub-Committe had chosen Gogeri's book, within a day, though it had not gone through either of the two books. I questioned this lapse in Court, which has upheld my contention."

Sugarcane farmers to protest tomorrow

Mysuru, July 3 (PM&SSM)- Urging for State Advisory Price (SAP) for sugarcane, farmers will be staging a protest in front of the Office of the Deputy Commissioner (DC) here at 11 am tomorrow. Similar protests will be held across the State on Tuesday (July 5).

Disclosing this at a press meet in Jaladarshini Guest House on Hunsur Road here yesterday, Sugarcane Growers' Association State President Kurubur Shanthakumar said that the cost of manures, fertilisers, pesticides and labour charges have increased. "In addition to this, farmers have to bear the cost of transportation of sugarcane to factories which in turn has increased the cost of the cultivation of sugarcane."

"In this regard, farmers have urged the Government to announce the procurement rate for sugarcane for the year 2022-23 similar to the Uttar Pradesh Government which has fixed the SAP of Rs. 3,500 per tonnes," he said.

He said that 70 sugar factories crushed 6.5 crore tonnes of sugarcane and the farmers are yet to be paid of Rs. 300 crore in arrears which to be repaid with 15 percent interest according to law.

Sugarcane Growers' Association State President Kurubur Shanthakumar addressing a press meet at Jaladarshini Guest House on Hunsur Road here yesterday as others look on.

Stating that the Government is yet to announce the Fair and Remunerative Price (FRP) and announce the SAP for sugarcane at the earliest.

Cancel GST

The Central Government has not imposed GST on horse betting and casinos, but has imposed GST on equipment like borewells and automatic milking machine which the farmers use. The GST imposed on the farming machines must be cancelled, Shanthakumar urged.

Association leaders Attalli Devaraj, Kiragasur Shankar, Baradanapura Nagaraj, Kendagannaswamy, Venkatesh, Devamani and others were present at the press meet.

SUCI-C flays rising prices of essentials

Mysuru, July 3 (MTY&SSM)- Condemning the frequent increase in prices of essential commodities including diesel, petrol and LPG, members of Socialist Unity Centre of India (Communist) (SUCI-C) staged a protest in front of the Deputy Commissioners Office in city yesterday.

The inefficiency in administration of Centre and State Governments for the past few years have resulted in escalation of prices. People's representatives have involved themselves in corruption. The prices of basic commodities like LPG, cooking oil, ration, medicines etc. have increased resulting in inconvenience to the general public especially the economically weaker section who can't even afford a meal for a day, the protestors alleged.

"The GST has also increased for the ration items. The job opportunities are declining. There are vacant posts in various Government sectors, but the Government is not recruiting people fairly. Even though they start the recruitment process, there is corruption all over and recruit those who have high influence and connections," the protestors said.

"There is a 40 percent commission for contracts to any Government works. The tax we pay is now in the hands of political leaders who end up misusing our hard earned money," the protestors said and expressed their outrage stating that the Government must facilitate the public by providing essential commodities through Ration Cards and must consider corruption as a serious issue and take necessary actions.

SUCI (C) District Secretary B. Ravi, M. Shashidhar, Uma Devi, Chandrashekar Meti, Sandhya, Seema, Harsh, Chandrakala, Asia Begum, Nithushree and others were present.

Two MUDA FDAs transferred

Mysuru, July 3 (RK&DM)- Perhaps for the first time in MUDA's history, the Government has transferred two First Division Assistants (FDAs), who have been serving in MUDA for years.

N. Deepak attached to the Office of the Personal Assistant of MUDA Commissioner and K.C. Umesh, who served at the Office of Special Land Acquisition Officer are the ones who have been transferred. While Deepak has been transferred to Kalaburagi Urban Development Authority, Umesh has been transferred to Bidar Urban Development Authority of Kalyana Karnataka region.

K. Latha, the Under-Secretary of Urban Development Department, has issued the order to this effect on June 29, which has surprised many in MUDA.

Dalit organisations to stage stir on July 4

Mysuru, July 3- Strongly opposing the Government's move to abolish Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Development Corporation, D. Devaraj Urs Backward classes Development Corporation, Valmiki Development Corporation, Minorities Development Corporation and Women's Development Corporation, that were established to help the poor and marginalised sections of the society, city-based Dalita Pragatipara Sanghatanegala Okkoota, will hold a drum beating protest (tamate chaluvali) in front of the Deputy Commissioner's office here at 10.30 am tomorrow (July 4).

The Okkoota has condemned the Government's decision to close down these corporations citing losses, according to a press release.

CNC urges Govt. to accord Geo-Political Autonomy

Madikeri, July 3 (SSM)- Urging the Government to facilitate the Kodava Land Geo-Political Autonomy under Articles 244, 371 (read with 6th & 8th Schedule of the Constitution) and also Scheduled Tribe (ST) tag to Kodava tribe among various other demands, Codava National Council (CNC) President N.U. Nachappa and the other Council members staged a stir in front of the Deputy Commissioner's Office in the town yesterday.

The Government must consider Kodavas as a Scheduled Tribe community and must officially provide the ST tag at the earliest. Under the Constitution Act 25 and 26 the Kodava Gun Rights should be continued without any time restriction and also Kodava language should be incorporated in the 8th Schedule of the Constitution.

The Kodava cultural heritage should be included in the Intangible Cultural Heritage list of UNESCO, the members demanded.

"The Kodava community has its origin only in Kodagu and the people are being neglected. If this continues, all the history and culture of the community will disappear without any trace. The CNC from the past few years are fighting for the rights of the whole community," they said and submitted a memorandum seeking to fulfilment of their demands.

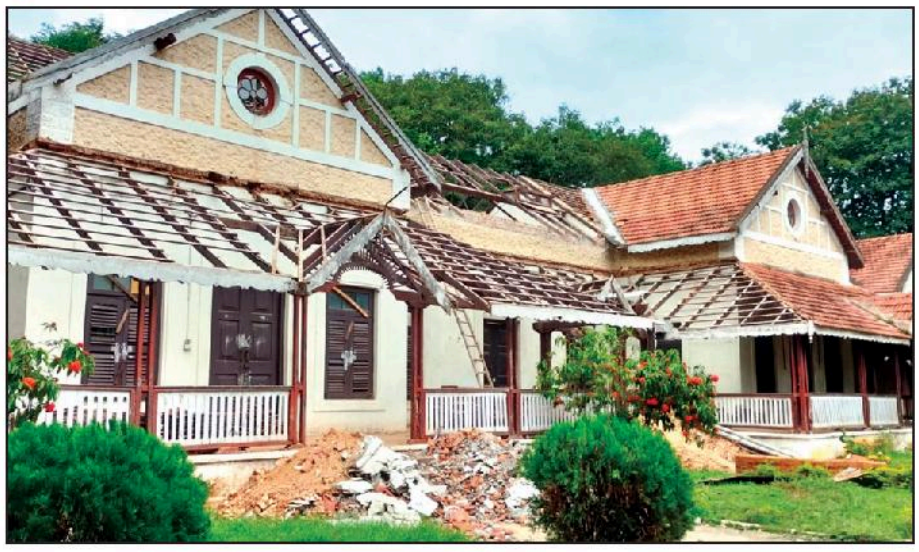
Council members B. Savitha Girish, P. Swathi Kalappa, C. Jyothi Nanaiah, Ltn. Col. B.M. Parvathi, K. Prakash, B. Chippanna, P. Kalappa, A. Lokesh, A. Girish, M. Manoj and others were present.

Amid talks of demolishing & reconstructing Devaraja Market, Lansdowne Building...

Two buildings to be renovated

- Sri Chandramouleshwara Swamy Temple near Palace

- Old City Police Commissioner's Office at Nazarbad



Mysuru, July 3 (RK&BCT)- There is a desperate need to save historical, cultural and heritage-value structures in Mysuru city that are in dilapidated condition as there is a danger of them meeting the fate of structures like Lansdowne Building, Devaraja Market, V.V. Market and the Fire Brigade Office where neither the Mysuru City Corporation nor the State Government has been able to take a decision on conservation and restoration.

Instead, the authorities are in favour of demolishing the structures and rebuilding them in a 'heritage-like' manner, much to the chagrin of heritage experts, stakeholders, the public and the Mysore royal family.

In such a scenario, the repair and restoration work that has been taken up at the 102-year-old City Police Commissioner's Office at Nazarbad at a cost of Rs. 64 lakh without disturbing its heritage and architectural aspects comes as a ray of hope to heritage structures.

The restoration of the old City Police Commissioner's Office is being done by the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage which has simultaneously taken up the restoration of the Sri Chandramouleshwara Swamy Temple building located near the North Gate (Balarama-Jayarama Gate) of the Mysore Palace.

The temple comes under the administration of the Muzarai Department and is in a dilapidated state. The ceiling has given away in many places and the plastering of the parapet wall surrounding the temple too has chipped away at many places, exposing the inner brickworks. Due to incessant rains, the structure was continuously leaking, loosening it further.

Realising that the building would collapse if urgent repairs are not done, the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage has taken up the restoration works. As it is a heritage structure, the repair and restoration works are being carried out after seeking suggestions from heritage experts and even the works are being carried out by workers who have experience in doing such skilled work.

The Muzarai Department has released Rs. 16 lakh for the restoration works and an estimate has been prepared for Rs. 13,29,397 and accordingly, the tenders have been called. Conservation engineers from the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage have begun the works on June 24.

The first instalment of Rs. 4 lakh has been released and with this, the Madras roof of the temple is being levelled with weather-proof concrete and a facility is being created for rainwater to flow smoothly. Yelahanka tiles will be fixed later.

Paving, pointing and the works of the parapet wall and gopura will be taken up, walls will be strengthened and plastered new. Officials said that the renovation works are being taken up with the materials used in the earlier years and there will be no change in their composition. The renovation works are undertaken under the supervision of the In-Charge Commissioner of the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage B.R. Poornima and will be completed in four months. The works are being executed by Conservation Section Assistant Executive Engineers C.T. Mahesh and Pramod, Junior Engineers Satish and FDA Anil Kumar.

Fearless tusker Abhimanyu helps Forest staff capture tiger hiding in banana plantation

Big cat had seriously injured two farmers

Gundlupet, July 3 (SOMG, MTY&KS)- The tiger, which had attacked and seriously injured two farmers while they were working in their field near Lakkipura, bordering Gopalaswamy Forest Range of Bandipur Reserve Forest yesterday, was captured this morning with the help of jumbo Abhimanyu, the combing specialist.

Yesterday, when farmer Gaviappa was working in his field, the tiger attacked a cow and killed it at the field of one Channappa. Gaviappa, who heard the cries of the cow, rushed to the spot, only to be attacked by the tiger. Gaviappa too retaliated and struck the tiger with a machete and screamed for help.

When others rushed to the aid of Gaviappa, the tiger is said to have entered the banana plantation of Gaviappa and stayed put there. Photos and videos of the tiger hiding in the banana plantation were captured by the crowd who had assembled and they have gone viral on social media.

The tiger has also attacked one Shekar, a farmer, resident of Gopalapura and has injured him severely on his back and legs.

Forest Department officials and staff, who rushed to the spot, tried to disperse the crowd and as it had become dark, the operation to capture the tiger was suspended and Forest staff was deployed around the tiger's hiding spot to prevent it from straying into human habitat. The Forest staff had kept a watch on the tiger overnight.

Today morning, the operation resumed at about 6.15 and combing specialist Abhimanyu was summoned from Rampura Elephant Camp to assist the Forest and Police personnel.

Abhimanyu traced the tiger hiding in the banana plantation and veterinarian Dr. Waseem fired a tranquilliser shot rendering the tiger unconscious within a few minutes.

The tiger was then captured using nets and will be shifted to Chamundi Rehabilitation Centre in Koorgalli, Mysuru, where it will be treated for the wounds. Sources said that the tiger would be released back into the forest once it recovers.

More than 50 Forest and Police personnel took part in the operation.

Dr. B.C. Roy and Us!

The Friday that just went by two days ago, happened to be a very special day for all doctors across our nation. It was July 1st, the day that is celebrated as our 'National Doctors' Day', on which we doctors are made to feel special by our patients, friends, relatives and the hospitals we are attached to.

Being a doctor, let me say here that on this day every year, I get more messages wishing me, than on my birthday itself! So, at a personal level too, our national day makes us all doctors feel special and happy that our role in society is being recognised and we are being honoured by a grateful fraternity of happy patients.

It is interesting to note that while there are dozens of days designated across the world, as international day of this and international day of that, including some very comic and absurd themes, an 'International Doctors' Day' is surprisingly not celebrated across the entire world, on one particular day. Different countries observe it on different dates of their own choice, with their own significance.

In our country, this unique day was designated so only very recently, in the year 1991. It was done in memory of Dr. Bidhan Chandra Roy, a stalwart among doctors, who very interestingly, was both born and also died on 1st July, having lived a life of exactly eighty years. How great a man he was to merit this honour and what he did during his long lifetime, was very well highlighted in his article on Doctors' Day in Star of Mysore by Dr. B.V. Rajagopal (BVR), who along with Dr. C.D. Sreenivasa Murthy, happens to be among the senior most Physicians of our city.

In his article, Dr. BVR has shed a great deal of light on the illustrious life of Dr. B.C. Roy and my appeal to all readers of Star of Mysore is that if they have missed reading it, they should go back to that issue and read it without fail. By doing this they would not only get to know about the life of one of the greatest doctors of our country but would also be paying their own homage to his great soul. And, this towering man deserves this homage because he was 'many men in one man', which is how I see him. He was the person who in addition to starting the Medical Council of India (MCI) also founded the Indian Medical Association (IMA), the largest professional body of doctors in our country. When he started it, this body had a membership of just 226 across the country, which has now grown to more than four lakhs and is still continuing to grow.

Dr. B.C. Roy

I feel that our Government was very kind not only to him but also to the entire medical fraternity of the country when, in the year1961, it conferred on Dr. B.C. Roy the nation's highest civilian award, the Bharat Ratna, which he very richly deserved.

But, mind you, I am not at all surprised that his name was not even considered for many similar awards at an international level, because I have found that such nominations are most often highly biased, with many other considerations, rather than merit alone, guiding them. I will also not hesitate to assert here that the most notable culprit in this regard is the world's most notable and famous Nobel Prize, which with its many miserably wrong hits and complete misses, like shots in the dark, has now completely fallen from grace!

Dr. BVR has also mentioned in his article that an award was instituted by The Indian Medical Association in the year 1976, in memory of its founder, Dr. B.C. Roy and named after him, which was meant to be conferred every year on some of the leading achievers in the field of medicine, in recognition of their outstanding work and service as medical professionals. The National IMA and sometimes its State branches, with its approval, were meant to be the only bodies which were authorised to confer this very prestigious award and that is how things were until a few years ago.

But sadly, a time soon came when we started seeing awards in the name of Dr. B. C. Roy being instituted and conferred by many lesser-known institutions across our country.

While this itself was a very bad turn of events, being very disrespectful to the great man and the award itself, a trend has now come where these so-called 'Dr. B.C. Roy Awards' are being showered like paper confetti, by all kinds of unknown non-entities, on doctors of their choice.

The situation is so bad now that whenever a locality level group wants to hog the limelight by honouring a doctor who happens to be practicing in their area, or who makes a donation to their cause, they confer on him or her a 'Dr. B. C. Roy Award', at a hastily arranged function, held in a local choultry! The result is that what used to be the highest award for doctors, at the National level, has now become only a dubious, locality level award.

I am very sorry to say here that some doctors too, being only too happy to receive any award, irrespective of who it is comes from, very obligingly accept such honours. This only proves right the age-old adage that, 'Some people, mistaking notoriety for fame, would rather be notorious, than unknown'!

It is really a very sad turn of events that the prestige and sanctity of an honour given in memory of such a great and noble soul like Dr. B.C. Roy, has been denigrated to this low level. So, as a doctor, I feel that, keeping away the persons who come to us with such offers, we doctors, in the interest of preserving our own dignity and the dignity and sanctity of our profession too, should simply refuse to accept them.

I hope that we all keep this in mind in the days to come and put an end to this sad trend, which is in very poor taste. Let the glint of happiness in our patients' eyes alone, become the best and highest award in our lives!

Pourakarmikas stir continues for third day

Warn of total suspension of work from July 5 if demands not met

Mysuru, July 3 (PM&DM)- The indefinite stir launched by Direct Payment System Pourakarmikas of Mysuru city Corporation (MCC) in front of the MCC main office on Sayyaji Rao Road, seeking regularisation of service and fulfillment of other demands, entered the third day today, badly affecting waste collection and disposal, cleaning activities and such other civic works in the city.

The stir was launched on July 1, with direct payment Pourakarmikas absenting from work, in response to the Statewide stir called by Karnataka State City Corporations, CMCs and TMCs, contract and direct payment pourakarmika and Waste Disposal Vehicles Drivers Association.

Addressing the protestors this morning, MCC Pourakarmika Association President N. Mara said that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai is expected to announce the Government's decision on resolving the issue by tomorrow evening. If the Government decision is not favourable, then the Contract Payment System Pourakarmikas, along with regularised Pourakarmikas will strike work from July 5, thus bringing a complete halt to all civic works.

Pointing out that there are as many as 1,648 direct payment system Pourakarmikas, 385 door-to-door waste collectors and 231 sanitation workers attached to the MCC, Mara said that tomorrow (July 4) morning, the association leaders will visit all the 65 wards of the MCC and seek the support of regularised Pourakarmikas, who have continued to work. They will also be asked to stop work from July 5 and join the ongoing indefinite stir, he said adding that the stir will be intensified if the Government does not consider the Pourakarmika demands.

Pourakarmika leader Rachaiah, who also addressed the protestors, said that the Mestris and Pourakarmika leaders will visit all MCC wards from 6 am to 8 am tomorrow to seek the support of regularised Pourakarmikas, who are 530 in number.

Former MLA M.K. Somashekar visited the stir venue this morning to express solidarity with the striking pourakarmikas.

Pourakarmikas to get Rs. 2,000 as monthly hardship pay

Bengaluru, July 3 (KMS&DM)- Even as contract Pourakarmikas and sanitation workers launched an indefinite stir across the State yesterday seeking regularisation of service and fulfillment of their other demands, the State Government on Friday announced that Pourakarmikas serving in Urban Local Bodies would get Rs.2,000 as hardship pay every month.

Briefing presspersons after the Cabinet meeting here on Friday, Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J.C. Madhuswamy said that the hardship pay to Pourakarmikas is paid under allowance head. The other Cabinet decisions taken included execution of Multi-village drinking water projects in the districts of Yadgiri, Tumkur and Vijayapura at a cost of Rs. 4,000 crore under Jaljeevan Mission, construction of new Court buildings in Belagavi, Chikkamagalur, Kolar and Ballari districts, Rs. 20 crore stamp duty exemption for Nirani Sugars factory at Pandavapura, which will be paid by the Government itself now, with the condition that the company has to repay the amount in 10 years and sanction of additional Rs. 65.5 crore for night landing facility at Shivamogga Airport, Madhuswamy said adding that the Cabinet also approved the release of the remaining cost for the installation of 325 ft. tall Basaveshwara statue (costing Rs. 30 crore) at Chitradurga's Murugha Mutt premises.

Rain intensifies in Kodagu

Submerged Triveni Sangama in Bhagamandala. Picture right: PWD, Forest and CESC personnel clear a tree that has fallen on the Madikeri-Bhagamandala Road near Bettageri-Bakka.

A couple of trees were uprooted on the Madikeri-Mangaluru Highway near Jodupala yesterday and Madikeri-Bhagamandala Road near Bettageri, disrupting traffic. The Madikeri-Bhagamandala-Karike Road was blocked due to a landslip and it was cleared to pave way for traffic movement.

This morning, there were reports of landslides at Second Monnangeri in the Galibeedu Gram Panchayat limits on the road that links Vivekagiri. Landslides have been reported at Makkandur. At the earthquake-prone Karike-Kundathikana village, huge boulders have landed on the crude road used by the villagers, cutting off the connection.

It will be a daunting task for the authorities to clear the boulders as no earthmover vehicle can get onto that road.

Meanwhile, as it is raining heavily, water flow to River Cauvery and River Harangi has increased and as such, the outflow from the Harangi Dam this morning has increased to 15,000 cusecs. Yesterday, 10,000 cusecs were released.

The Bhagamandala-Ayyangeri Road, Bhagamandala-Triveni Sangama Road and Bhagamandala-Napoklu Road have been submerged, breaking the link. Traffic has been banned on these roads. Even the low-level bridge at Balamberi is submerged and water is flowing 5 ft. above the road. Fortunately, there is a bigger bridge here that is used by the villagers.

CESC personnel have started restoration of power lines on a war footing at many places including Ammathi, Madapura, Garagandoor, Koodige and Siddapura. Power breakdowns have also been reported in Madikeri Division. CESC officers said that all feeders have been charged and teams are attending breakdowns and restoring the power supply.

'Dhwaja Satyagraha' against Flag Code revision on July 30

Meeting and group spinning session held

Mysuru, July 3 (RKB&SSM)- As a precursor to 'Dhwaja Satyagraha' to be held on July 30 at Subbarayanakere, a group spinning session 'Let's Spin' organised by Khadi Nulugararа Balaga, Mysuru, was held at Prakriti, Krishnaraja Boulevard, Chamarajapuram here this morning.

Theatre personality and social activist Prasanna said that as per Rule 1.2 of Part 1 of the Flag Code of India 2002, only Khadi or hand-spun cloth was the material for the flag. "Use of other materials was not allowed. But the recent amendment has changed where the National Flag can be made of hand-spun and hand-woven or machine-made, cotton, polyester, wool and silk Khadi bunting which is not acceptable."

Pointing out that the Flag Code amendment allows the machine-made polyester that is made in India or imported from elsewhere can be used to prepare the Indian flag, Prasanna said that the Government does not need the contributions made by farmers, spinners, villagers, women and poor anymore but are running behind MNC companies who make huge profit in the country's economy.

"The traditional practices and values are being crushed. If we don't preserve the Indian tradition of hand-spun, hand-woven Khadi flag and other similar traditional practices, we may end up like Sri Lanka that has become bankrupt," he added.

"Condemning all this a 'Dhwaja Satyagraha' will be held on July 30, a fortnight before Independence Day this year at Subbarayanakere," Prasanna said.

At today's event, children and others took part in the group spinning session after the meeting. Balaga members Sachidananda, Balachandra, Santhosh, Sowmya, Rajani, Gowri and others were present.

KCET counselling: Students asked to keep original documents ready

Mysuru, July 3- Just like how we keep checking our WhatsApp daily we should also keep regular updates on Karnataka Examination Authority (KEA) website for notification, said Uday Shankar, CET Cell Expert.

Addressing parents and students during Open Day 2022 organised by Vidyavardhaka College of Engineering at its premise here recently, he said "For regular and daily updates it is very important that parents and students keep checking KEA website as it will also help them for smooth flow of KCET counselling which includes documentation verification process.

Due to lack of update about KEA among parents, there are many instances where students are put to lot of inconvenience including losing their seats. Soon after CET results are announced that is prior to document verifications, counselling will start for special category students that is for students who are applying seats under NCC /NSS/Sports/ Defence/Scouts and Guides.

All the original certificates should be submitted and same will be sent to Bengaluru from where it will be sent to respective departments for verification. Once it is approved from the department it will be updated online before they come for document verifications.

Advice to parents and students

"Students coming for document verifications should bring all their originals including SSLC marks card, PU marks card given by college and attested by the Principal, Aadhaar card, caste certificate, income certificate, study certificate counter signed by BEO, PU it should be signed by DDPU and rural study certificate. The other common problem which we face during document verification is income certificate. Parents and students should keep track on income certificates which is valid for just five years. Though most of the caste certificates are valid for lifetime it's not the same with income certificate as it is valid for just five years; during document verifications many come with invalid income certificate. If anyone wants to get income certificate it will take minimum 15 to 20 days," added Uday Shankar.

He also mentioned that there is all possibility that Vidyavardhaka College of Engineering (VVCE) which is one among five nodal centres in Karnataka since 2013 in Mysuru will also be nodal centre this year as well. Explaining the criteria for students to choose the college, Dr. B. Sadashive Gowda, Principal of VVCE, called upon them to have a look at the infrastructure and faculty, research centres set up at the institution and also ranking.

"Many students are deprived of seats for simple mistakes while uploading documents, entering options and also taking decisions which is not in favour of them; hence such Open Day events will help them a lot," he added.

Panel discussion

The HoDs of all the departments of VVCE briefed about various courses and its importance and job opportunities. Parents and students too participated actively by asking questions and clarifying their doubts.

Gundappa Gowda, President, P. Vishwanath, Secretary and Shrishaila Ramannavar, Treasurer of Vidyavardhaka Sangha were also present.

RSS working for organisation and unity of Hindu Samaj

Mysuru, July 3 (MK&DM)- Veteran RSS leader (Jyeshta Pracharak) S. Ramanna said that the RSS is working for the organisation and unity of Hindu Samaj and maintenance of harmony across castes and creed.

He was speaking at 'Rashtratapaswi Sri Guruji' book release programme jointly organised by Rashtrothana Sahitya and Jana Jagarana Trust at 'Madhava Krupa' on JLB Road here on Saturday.

Stressing on the need for eradication of social evils such as untouchability, S. Ramanna observed that seers from all upper castes should come together to declare that there is no such thing as untouchability in the Hindu society. Maintaining that the RSS works on the principle 'Sangham Sharanam Gachhami', he said that the organisation is known for its selfless service. Contending that the RSS does not believe in personality cult (Vyakti Puje), Ramanna asserted that the RSS believes only in the cult of principles.

Referring to mother-tongue, the RSS leader said that one's feelings can be best expressed only in his/her mother-tongue. As such everyone should prefer to learn to speak their mother-tongue clearly, he noted.

A human being can get to the top only by doing good things, he said adding that Sri Guruji rightly earned the title 'Rashtratapaswi' as he motivated crores of people to develop service mindedness and enthused the spirit of patriotism, among them.

Bengaluru's Sanjay Gandhi Hospital faculty Dr. N.S. Mohan released 'Rashtratapaswi Sri Guruji' book, the Kannada version of the Hindi work based on the life of late RSS leader (second Sarsanghchalak) Madhav Sadashivrao Golwalkar. RSS leader R. Vasudev Bhat and others were present on the occasion.

Shivashankar further told Shashikumar that he would be given currency notes smeared with a black colour substance and once that currency is dipped in a liquid it would turn into a Rs. 500 currency note.

WORD OF THE DAY

Ingenuous

Pronunciation: in-JEN-yuh-wus.
Meaning: Ingenuous is most commonly used to describe someone who shows innocent or childlike simplicity and candidness.
Origin: Ingenuous is most often used to describe someone who has a childlike innocence and openness. It should not be confused with ingenious, which typically describes someone who is unusually inventive or clever, or something made or done in an especially original or clever way. The words look very much alike, but sound different: remember that ingenuous sounds like its linguistic relation genuine, while ingenious sounds like genius—despite the fact that there is no etymological connection between those two.
Example: "I remember too well being young yet adult, confident yet ingenuous. It's like marching off to war, armed with a bubble wand." — Margo Bartlett

THE ODD WORD

Ichnomancy

Divination using footprints.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

In the groove

Meaning: The phrase 'In the Groove' is used to describe doing something easily and well.
Origin: The first record players were marvelous inventions, but took some work to operate correctly. Instruction manuals accompanying these machines informed operators of the importance of keeping the stylus firmly in the record's groove to ensure sound quality. The idiom 'in the groove' coincides with the arrival of jazz in the 1920s, when people talked about performers and dancers being "in the groove" when they did well.
Example: "I haven't played in a month, but with a bit more practice I'll be right back in the groove."

QUOTE BOX

Let the great world spin for ever down the ringing grooves of change.

—Alfred Lord Tennyson
